Introduction

This report outlines the twenty fifth set of results in a series of regular Local Government Association (LGA) public polls on resident satisfaction with local councils, conducted every four months.<sup>1</sup>

With the publication of Are You Being Served<sup>2</sup> in 2012 – a set of resident satisfaction questions that councils can choose to use in their local surveys and benchmark themselves against other authorities – the LGA has responded to demand from the sector for more intelligence in this area.

Our national polling complements councils' local work by regularly looking at the national picture. Tracking national changes in satisfaction with councils, alongside questions on other related issues about residents' local areas, can provide valuable information on what is driving resident perceptions and, therefore, what councils can do to serve their local communities better.

Many additional factors will influence resident views of councils at a local level, including local demographics, economic factors and social circumstances. It is important, therefore, that polling results are seen as complementary to a wider approach aimed at understanding and responding to communities at a local level.

Comparison against national polls provides context and trends, and helps to identify possible relationships with other variables, but councils could include additional questions in their local surveys and conduct other engagement activities. Analysis of this information might help diagnose what other factors are driving satisfaction levels locally.

Methodology

Between 27 February and 1 March 2020, a representative random sample of 1,001 British adults (aged 18 or over) was polled by telephone.<sup>3</sup>

Respondents were given the following preamble at the outset:

"I would like to ask you some questions about your local council. Local councils are responsible for a range of services such as refuse collection, street cleaning, planning, education, social care services and road maintenance.

<sup>1</sup> Note that until October 2014, the polling was conducted quarterly. It was later changed to once every four months.

<sup>3</sup> Quotas were set on age, gender and region and the data weighted to the known British profile of age, gender, region, social grade, taken a foreign holiday in the last three years, tenure, number of cars in the household, working status, and mobile only households. The polling was conducted by Populus Data Solutions.

If you live in an area with more than one council please think about the way in which they deliver services to you overall. This would include district and county councils. We are doing this to keep the survey simple as it is part of a national study.”

A full set of interview questions is included in Annex B for information. Where the questions cover the same topics as the Are You Being Served<sup>2</sup> question set, the same question ordering, wording, definitions and preamble have been used to allow comparability.<sup>4</sup>

A new question was added to this round of polling. Respondents were asked: “When did you last read a public notice in your local newspaper, for example, about a licensing or planning application or highways notice?” Those who indicated that they never read this section of their local newspaper were asked a follow-up question about why this was the case.

<sup>4</sup> The mode of data collection can have a marked impact on results, therefore, results are only truly comparable with surveys conducted via telephone.

Notes

Where tables and figures report the base, the description refers to the group of people who were asked the question. The number provided refers to the unweighted number of respondents who answered each question.

This is the twenty fifth round of polling in this series, and the paper examines trends since the first round in September 2012.<sup>5</sup> Differences between results are highlighted within the report where this is statistically significant.<sup>6</sup> Other movements in the data series not reaching statistical significance are viewed as notable changes.

Please note the following when reading the report:

- Throughout the report percentages in figures and tables may add to more than 100 due to rounding.
- The following conventions are used in tables: '*' - less than 0.5 per cent; '0' – no observations; '-' – category not applicable/data not available.

<sup>5</sup> The full papers outlining the results of previous polls can be found here: <https://www.local.gov.uk/our-support/research/research-publications/residents-satisfaction-surveys>

Key findings

Key indicators

- The LGA's polling uses six indicators to measure how satisfied residents are with their local area and council. Most respondents in this round gave positive satisfaction ratings, as they have done in all 24 previous rounds, except for 'value for money'.
- Figure 1 shows the results for February 2020 alongside the rolling average of polls. Satisfaction levels for this round were reasonably consistent against the average, which is based on all rounds of polling since September 2012.

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Satisfaction with council services

- Since 2012, the LGA's polling has asked residents to indicate their level of satisfaction with eight council services. Except for road maintenance, the proportion of people who felt satisfied with their councils' services (either 'very satisfied' or 'fairly satisfied') has not significantly changed since the previous round of polling in October 2019.

Community safety

- The proportion of respondents who felt very safe when outside in their local area during the day was significantly lower in this round than the last round.

Trust in forms of government

- Respondents were much more likely to indicate that they trusted their council, as opposed to the government, to make decisions about how services are provided in their local area (see Figure 2).
- Respondents were far more likely to single out local councillors, as opposed to members of parliament and government ministers, as the individuals they most trusted to make decisions about how services are provided (see Figure 3).

Polling on resident satisfaction with councils

This section outlines the polling results for February 2020. Tables showing the full response breakdowns for every answer option can be found in Annex A.

Overall satisfaction with local area

Just over eight out of ten respondents reported being ‘very satisfied’ or ‘fairly satisfied’ with their local area as a place to live (81 per cent). This high level of satisfaction has been observed across all rounds of polling (see Figure 4).

Figure 4: Overall, how satisfied or dissatisfied are you with your local area as a place to live?<sup>7</sup>

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Overall satisfaction with local council

Sixty three per cent of respondents in this round were ‘very satisfied’ or ‘fairly satisfied’ with ‘the way their local council runs things’ (see Figure 5). This is the same proportion as the previous two rounds.

<sup>7</sup> Local area was defined as “the area within 15 to 20 minutes walking distance from your home”.

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Value for money

Forty eight percent of respondents in this round agreed that their council provides value for money (see Figure 6). When compared to the previous round of polling in October 2019, there has been no significant change in respondents' perception that their council provides value for money. Of the six indicators of resident satisfaction, perceptions about value for money have always received much lower positive ratings than the other measures.

Figure 6: To what extent do you agree or disagree that your local council(s) provides value for money?<sup>8</sup>

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Council responsiveness

Fifty seven per cent of respondents said that their council acts on the concerns of local residents either ‘a great deal’ or ‘a fair amount’ (see Figure 7), and the rolling average is 60 per cent. Acting on residents’ concerns is an important measure of local accountability as it looks at whether councils are perceived to be responsive to local issues and problems.

<sup>8</sup> The following preamble was used: “In considering the next question, please think about the range of services your local council(s) provides to the community as a whole, as well as the services your household uses. It does not matter if you do not know all of the services your local council(s) provides to the community. We would like your general opinion.”

Figure 7: To what extent do you think your local council(s) acts on the concerns of local residents?

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Informed about the council

Sixty percent of respondents said their local council keeps residents ‘very well informed’ or ‘fairly well informed’ about the services and benefits it provides (see Figure 8). This proportion has largely remained consistent throughout 2019 and into 2020.

Figure 8: Overall, how well informed do you think your local council(s) keeps residents about the services and benefits it provides?

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Trust in forms of government

In this round, 59 per cent of respondents said they trusted their council either ‘a great deal’ or ‘a fair amount’ (see Figure 9), which means this proportion has not changed significantly since a peak in October 2017.<sup>9</sup>

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Respondents were much more likely to indicate that they trusted their local council, as opposed to the government, to make decisions about how services are provided in their local area (see Figure 10). Asked who they most trusted when it came to local decision making, their ‘local council’ or ‘the government’ or ‘neither’ – 71 per cent said their ‘local council’, 16 per cent said ‘the government’ and 12 per cent said ‘neither’.

<sup>9</sup> In October 2017 (round 18), the question “How much do you trust your local council(s)” was preceded by a supplementary question about council communications. This change to the question ordering could have impacted on the response gathered.

Figure 10: Who do you trust most to make decisions about how services are provided in your local area?<sup>10</sup>

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1009 British adults per round from Jun-13 to Feb-20

Respondents were far more likely to single out local councillors, as opposed to members of parliament and government ministers, as the individuals they most trusted to make decisions about how services were provided in their local area (see Figure 11). Seventy one per cent of respondents selected ‘local councillors’ when asked who they most trusted to make local service decisions, whereas 12 per cent selected ‘members of parliament’, seven per cent selected ‘government ministers’ and nine per cent chose ‘none of these’. This question was introduced in January 2014.

<sup>10</sup> ‘Neither’ was not read out to respondents as an answer option but the interviewer could code it if it was given spontaneously.

Figure 11: And which individuals do you trust most to make decisions about how services are provided in your local area?<sup>11</sup>

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1009 British adults per round from Jan-14 to Feb-20

Community safety

Perceptions of personal safety after dark were broadly consistent with previous rounds of polling. Seventy four per cent of respondents said they felt ‘very safe’ or ‘fairly safe’ when outside in their local area after dark (see Figure 12).

Figure 12: How safe or unsafe do you feel when outside in your local area after dark<sup>12</sup>

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

<sup>11</sup> ‘None of the above’ was not read out to respondents as an answer option but the interviewer could code if it was given spontaneously.

<sup>12</sup> Local area was defined as “the area within 15 to 20 minutes walking distance from your home”.

As Figure 13 shows, respondent feelings of safety during the day in their local area remains extremely high, with 91 per cent saying they felt ‘very safe’ or ‘fairly safe’, however, this represents a significant decrease compared to previous rounds.

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Service-specific satisfaction

Respondents were invited to indicate how satisfied or dissatisfied they were with the following council services<sup>14</sup>: waste collection; street cleaning; road maintenance; pavement maintenance; library services; sport and leisure services; services and support for older people; and services and support for children and young people. A ninth service, parks and green spaces, was introduced in October 2019. Tables showing the full set of service-specific satisfaction results can be found at Annex A.

Five of the nine services presented in this round received positive feedback from most respondents (see Figure 14). The highest levels of satisfactions were with waste collection services and parks and green spaces (78 per cent were ‘fairly satisfied’ or ‘very satisfied’, in both cases). These results are higher than overall satisfaction with how one’s council runs things (63 per cent, see Figure 5).

Satisfaction with street cleaning was also higher than overall satisfaction with how one’s council runs things (67 per cent of respondents were satisfied).

Of the eight services presented regularly, road maintenance continues to have the highest level of dissatisfaction. In this round, 32 per cent of respondents were satisfied with their council’s road maintenance (either ‘very satisfied’ or ‘fairly satisfied’), which is significantly lower than the previous round in October 2019. Fifty three per cent of respondents were dissatisfied with this service (either ‘very dissatisfied’ or ‘fairly dissatisfied’), an increase in overall dissatisfaction compared to the previous round of polling.

<sup>13</sup> Local area was defined as “the area within 15 to 20 minutes walking distance from your home”.

<sup>14</sup> Note that these questions were asked of all respondents, and the bases include those who may not have used particular services.

Base (all respondents): 1001 British adults in Feb-20

Of note, seven of the nine services presented to respondents in this round received a lower proportion of positive responses than the previous round, although only road maintenance was a statistically significant change (from 40 per cent in October 2019 and 32 per cent in February 2020). The general trends for satisfaction with services across the polling time-series is shown in Figure 15.

Figure 15: Proportion 'very satisfied' or 'fairly satisfied' with each service: Sep-2012 to Feb-20

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Media portrayal of government

Respondents were asked whether, overall, they thought that the media had viewed the following forms of government positively or negatively in the last few months – ‘the government’, ‘local councils across the country’ and their ‘own local council’.

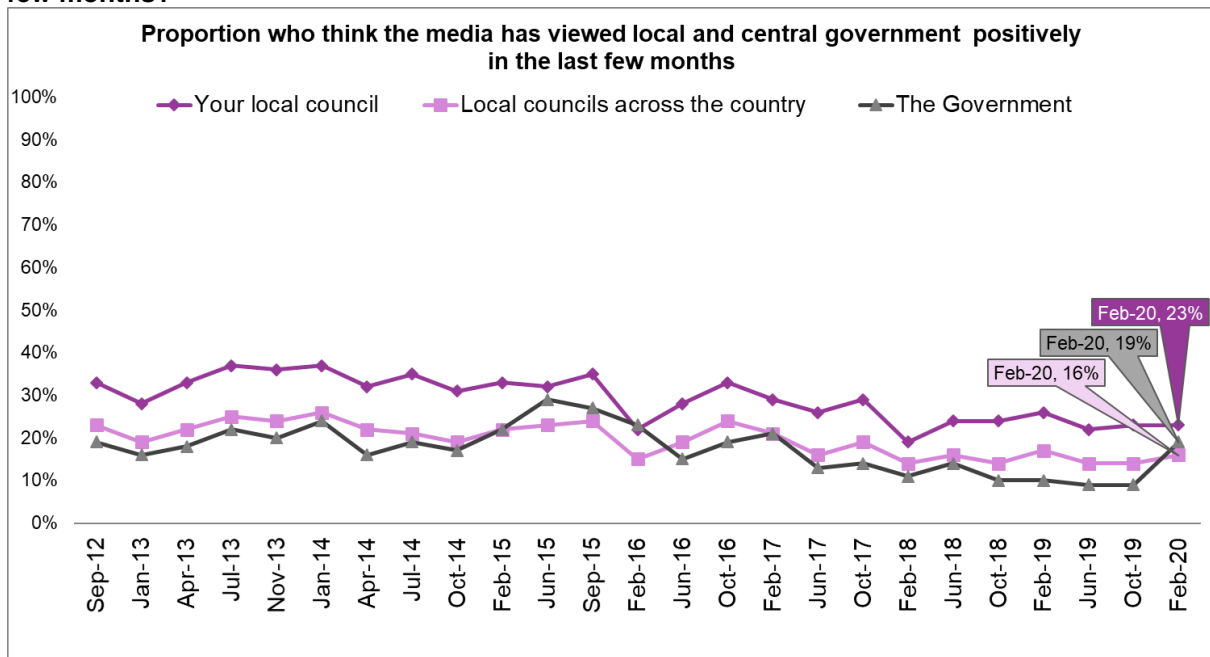

Regarding ‘the government’, the proportion of respondents observing positive coverage was 19 per cent, which is significantly higher than the previous nine rounds. The proportion observing negative coverage was 50 per cent, significantly lower than the previous eight rounds of polling.

Concerning the media’s coverage of ‘local councils across the country’, 16 per cent of respondents observed positive coverage, while those observing negative coverage was 27 per cent and those observing neither positive nor negative coverage was 49 per cent. None of these results are significant changes from the previous round of polling.

Asked about media coverage of their ‘own local council’, 23 per cent of respondents observed positive coverage. The proportion reporting negative coverage was 22 per cent in this round, and 48 per cent for those observing neither positive nor negative coverage. These changes are not statistically significant from the previous round of polling.

Figure 16 shows the proportion of respondents who said that media coverage had been positive, since September 2012. The full set of figures can be found at Annex A.

Figure 16: Overall, do you think that the media has viewed the following positively in the last few months?

Base (all respondents): Between 1000 and 1036 British adults per round from Sep-12 to Feb-20

Public notices

Respondents were asked an additional question about public notices. They were asked to indicate when they had last read a public notice in their local newspaper, for example, about a licensing or planning application or highways notice. More than a third of respondents (34 per cent) said they had never read a public notice in their local newspaper, while another third (33 per cent) had done so within the last month (see Figure 17).

Of the 320 respondents who said they never read public notices, 76 per cent said they don't read their local newspaper, 14 per cent said there was no local newspaper in their area and 10 per cent they did not read this section of their local newspaper.

Please note that this may also occur in other parts of the report where answer categories are combined.

Annex B: Polling questions

NOTE TO INTERVIEWERS: On treatment of 'don't know' throughout the survey: a specific reference to 'don't know' should not be included in the answer lists. The interviewer can, however, code this answer if it is given spontaneously.

INTRODUCTION

I would like to ask you some questions about your local council. Local councils are responsible for a range of services such as refuse collection, street cleaning, planning, education, social care services and road maintenance.

If you live in an area with more than one council please think about the way in which they deliver services to you overall. This would include district and county councils. We are doing this to keep the survey simple as it is part of a national study.

1. Overall, how satisfied or dissatisfied are you with your local area as a place to live?

Please consider your local area to be the area within 15–20 minutes walking distance from your home.

SELECT ONE ANSWER ONLY

- Very satisfied
- Fairly satisfied
- Neither satisfied nor dissatisfied

- Very dissatisfied

2. Overall, how satisfied or dissatisfied are you with the way your local council(s) runs things?

It does not matter if you do not know all of the services your local council(s) provides to the community. We would like your general opinion.
